January 2012

King Winter Vote— January 3-2012

Skiyentes' signature event of the season is taking place next month, February 11, when we crown our 2012 King Winter. It is imperative you be at the January 3 meeting to nominate and/or vote for this person. Bring your recommendations and nominations to this meeting. If you are nominating, you must be able to present to the club, qualifications and reasons why you think your nominee should be King. You must also have a contact number for your nominee. Tickets are printed and ready for sales. They were handed out at the holiday meeting and are $10 each. Please try to pre-sell tickets before the event. Julie and Jeannie are chairing this event. If you need tickets or have any questions, please contact them, Their numbers are in the roster.

Our Maryanne Cup club race and Kings Dinner are also that day. Let's not forget the Parade and luncheon. We've come a long way baby, since our first King Winter in 1955!

NASTAR begins January 7 and PACRAT racing begins January 8. Be sure to look for your race director, Colleen Walter, in her newly acquired Jordan Schweitzer pink helmet for up to date race information.

There are 2 general meetings in both January and February. Be sure to check the back page for dates.

2012 Roster Is Here

If you receive your Maidenforum by e-mail, your 2012 roster will be sent separately. If you are a postal recipient, it is on pages 6 and 7.

It is suggested you print at least 2 copies for yourself so that when it is blizzarding up on the mountain and you need to contact a sister, you have all numbers right there in your purse! Print both sides and there is only one paper.

Bachelor Blast Signups in January

Don't be left out in the cold without a room! Lodging is being assigned now for the April ski fling at Mt. Bachelor. All clubs are joining together for a weekend of skiing fun and parties. If you didn't sign up yet there is still time. See Jacqui Simonds or Louise for room preferences. $210. must be in to Skiyente by our January 17 meeting. Only 80 spots are for that price. All lodging, parties, lift tickets and lasagna lunch are included. The complete list of inclusions is on the nwskiers.org web site. Special rates for seniors and teens. So come on ladies, a strong Skiyente contingent would be awesome!

Council Corner

Below is a letter from Todd Schweitzer, father of Jordan who is our Erin Nicole Scholarship recipient.

Jordan Schweitzer Follow Up

Thanks again for the incredible support from both Skiyente and FWSA. Jordan is trying to collect enough money to go with the Western Region to Europe in a month and with the $2,000 from you it looks like it is going to happen! She has been in Colorado for almost 2 weeks now. Her and Pat Robson (coach at MBSEF) took her car back there and now Pat is gone and Jordan is bouncing between resorts and training with different clubs that welcome her in. The other day the Women's D team coach was watching her and invited her to train with them next Friday and Saturday! She will race at Aspen in the GS and then will fly home and be here 6 hours till she catches a ride to Canada for some more NorAm races. 10 days at home over Christmas then off to Munich for 7 tech starts in Germany, Austria, and Italy. Please relay Jordan and my gratitude to your members and she would not be where she is without them! If any of them need to unload some money before the end of the fiscal year, I know how I can come to their aid. :) Thanks again,
Todd Schweitzer-Press time update-Jordan is back home recuperating from broken arm from a Canadian race.

A day with Jordan

A typical week of Jordan Schweitzer's training: Monday: Morning cardio exercise such as running or biking. Afternoon strength training. Tuesday: Morning weight lifting. Afternoon dry land training with Mt. Bachelor Sports Education Foundation, agility work or a bike ride. Wednesday: Easy. A light pool workout or a game of basketball. Thursday: Morning weight lifting. Afternoon dry land training with MBSEF, agility work or a bike ride. Friday: Morning cardio such as running or biking. Afternoon strength training. Saturday: One workout of choice Sunday: Rest

So Skiyentes, how are your workouts coming ?

PACRAT

If these words sound familiar, or if they excite you, then, listen up! Go directly to your Skiyente race director, Colleen Walter. The first race of the 2012 season will be January 8.

The PACRAT race fee is $95 and that includes FIVE races, THREE post-race parties, discounted race tickets at the resorts AND free admission to the RAT ATTACK, the PACRAT Award Party held somewhere here in Portland in April!!!!!! BUT remember...if you make 4 out of the 5 races, Skiyente will reimburse you $20...so ALL THAT for only $75.00!!!!!! PLUS all the fun skiing and hanging out with your Skiyente Sisters is PRICELESS!!!!

Colleen will be turning in the race teams on Wednesday December 21, BUT can still add racers right up until the first race on January 8th! Please help us fill our teams! Sign up and bring a friend!!!!!!

At press time, we have 26 racers ready to rumble but we really need four more racers to make complete teams. Please consider joining us on a PACRAT team or recruit someone you know! You can go to www.pacrats.org to see the schedule.

The following are your Skiyente PACRAT teams.:

Fireside Recap

15 out of 15 Skiyentes agree. The Heritage House in Lake Oswego was a great venue for our holiday party.

You just know, Eva and Laurel will glam for the camera.

Toni, Mo and Maryanne enjoying the feast.

Sandi gets a new ski friend in the ornament exchange.

If you look up the word “festive” in the dictionary, you may find this picture of Barb, Sally, Alice and Colleen.

Lark, Laura, Starla, Jill and Jessica certainly look ready to enjoy the season with new and old friends. No meeting was held and members could really chat and catch up while toasting and munching on honey baked ham, salads, assortment of beverages, appetizers and desserts.

Gifts Galore

Our Holiday Raffle and auction was a huge success thanks to efforts of members who contributed to making baskets and acquiring auction items. The auction and drawing raised $1,480. One of our newer members, Stacey Lee, creates her own line of beautiful jewelry and has a line of Swarovski crystal snowflake necklaces and earrings which she donated to this year's drawing. Lucky Julie won and is proudly wearing them during her holiday festivities. Stacey is now looking to display her stylings at trunk showings. See her jewelry at: www.etsy.com/shop/homemadegeek or phone her.
